

Scanning board

Partner: read the group names out loud, one at a time, and watch for the yes signal.
Then read the pictures in that group the same way.

How to scan with me

Keep this page with the board, so every new partner scans the same way. Go in the same order every time.

1. Agree on a yes signal and write it down: a look, a smile, a sound, a hand movement.
2. Ask "Which group?" Read the group names in order, with a short pause after each.
3. At the yes, say the group back ("I feel?") and wait for a second yes.
4. Read that group's pictures one at a time, pointing to each, the same way.
5. Say the whole message ("You feel tired."). Not right? Start again at step 2.

My yes: _____

My no: _____

Go on / not this one: _____

I want to stop: _____

Make your own: write a group name, then glue, draw or write five choices
